

Optional tours Friday March 26, 2010, 14.30—17.00

Taylor's University College Lakeside Campus

Located in a prime area in Subang Jaya, the Taylor's Lakeside Campus is a 27 acre modern tropical university campus built around an inspiring 5.5 acre lake. Your visit to Taylor's University College will show you around this flagship urban green campus incorporating many ecologically sustainable principles, such as natural cooling systems, water harvesting and naturally ventilated spaces. ### University of Malaya

University of Malaya is the premier research university of Malaysia. The university's beginning at the Kuala Lumpur campus dates back to 1959 and its alumni community has since grown to over 100,000 strong. The 900 acre campus tour will include visits to the University of Malaya Botanic Garden (Rimba Ilmu) and the Museum of Asian Art (Muzium Seni Asia). www.um.edu.my

Nottingham University Malaysia

The University of Nottingham Malaysia opened in 2000. It is the first campus of a British University in Malaysia. In 2005, the campus moved to Semenyi, 30km south of Kuala Lumpur city centre and occupies a scenic 101-acre site that is home to 3,500 students and designed to mirror the attributes of the University Park in the UK. The tour offers a tangible example of Nottingham's commitment to Asia and queries regarding educational partnerships are welcome. www.nottingham.edu.my
