

SHE'S NOT JUST STEPPING INTO A ROLE.

SHE'S UNLEASHING HER CREATIVITY.

For a hundred years, Hart House Theatre has been a place where U of T students from all disciplines can explore their creative side—honing skills they can apply to whatever role their future holds. You help enrich the student experience through U of T affinity products—value-added services from our financial and insurance partners. Every time you purchase affinity products, a portion of the proceeds supports Hart House productions and other opportunities for our students to make discoveries outside the classroom.
