

50 ALUMNI, 50 STATES

LEAD THE CHARGE — Our 50 Alumni, 50 States campaign continues with the goal of featuring at least one Sandburg alumnus from each state. We want to discover where our alumni members are living, working and making a difference in their communities. Stay connected, help us complete our map and inspire the next generation of Chargers by sending us your Sandburg story that identifies where you live and a bit about your path. Are you from a state already highlighted? Go ahead and send us your information anyway. We want to hear from you!

Sandburg graduates truly do soar! In 2008, Matt Wolford graduated with an associate in science from Sandburg—just two weeks before earning his high school diploma as Valedictorian of Abingdon High School. Matt took full-time dual credit classes at Sandburg while balancing his coursework at Abingdon. He went on to earn his bachelor's degree from Western Illinois University at the age of 20 and was honored with Sandburg's Pacesetter Award in 2017. Today, Matt serves as Executive Vice President and part owner of Jet Air, Inc. Looking to connect? North Dakota? Check! We're continuing our trek across America as we search for one alumnus or alumna from each state. A 2008 Sandburg graduate, Dr. Cassie Gilbert now serves as a Project Manager for Cardamom Health and is an adjunct faculty member in the Psychology Department at North Dakota State University. Congratulations, Dr. Gilbert! Looking to connect?
