

Giving to students changes lives.

The only reason I am able to write these words is because of donor support.

Growing up, there were five kids in my home. My single mom gave me so much love and encouragement, but financially, we simply could not afford a McGill education.

But then I received a scholarship that changed my life! Thanks to this aid, I am pursuing the education of my dreams, volunteering and gaining meaningful hands-on experience.

I recently learned that many more students than I realized depend on financial aid.

My story is just one of thousands that show how donors can have an immense impact on students so that we can change the world. It's a chain reaction that starts with you.

Please make a gift through The McGill Fund today and open doors for students who need a helping hand.

Sincerely,
Julia Trolio, Class of 2021
