BUTLER BLUE III (TRIP)

BUTLERBLUE.COM

Aptly nicknamed "Trip" (short for "Triple" as he is the third mascot in succession), this red brindle, AKC-registered English Bulldog is a product of Kong King Kennel like his predecessors. Trip lives with Michael Kaltenmark, a 2002 Butler graduate and director of external relations, along with his wife Tiffany, and their two sons, Everett and Miles.

Trip was born on December 23, 2011 and made his debut before a sellout crowd in Hinkle Fieldhouse prior to a men's basketball game on February 18, 2012. Also of note, Trip is the great grandson of Ch. Cherokee Legend Rock, one of the nation's winningest and most decorated English Bulldogs of the last decade and of all time. Fitting lineage for Trip in his role as one of sports' most recognizable mascots.

Find out more about Trip and the Butler University live mascot program at ButlerBlue.com. Or follow Trip on social media with a query of "ButlerBlue3" on your favorite search engine or by searching the host of digital platforms represented below.

BUTLER UNIVERSITY

As gifts to Butler University from Frank and Jean King of Kong King Kennel (Lizton, Indiana), Butler's live English Bulldog mascots enjoy great care and support from the start. The Butler Blue live mascot program is proud to be associated with these reputable and generous Bulldog backers.
