Dear [Primary Salutation]

Each year as spring arrives, we look forward to hosting our annual Jacaranda Society Morning Tea – an opportunity to recognise and celebrate the generosity of our giving community and donors just like you. However, due to COVID-19 restrictions, we have decided to cancel all of our face-to-face events for this year to ensure our community remains safe.

Although at this time we cannot come together in person to celebrate, we wanted to reach out and let you know that we are thinking of you, and we hope your loved ones are safe and well.

As the jacaranda trees bloom across St Lucia, we thought you would enjoy the enclosed jigsaw puzzle as a memento of our beautiful campus. While you cannot come to us this year, we hope it brings a little part of UQ into your home.

Support like yours provides students with life-changing scholarships, enables the progression of world-class research such as our COVID-19 vaccine project, and leaves a lasting legacy for future generations.

Despite the difficulties of this year, I hope you have still been able to connect with us through some of our online events, and greatly encourage you to contact me by telephone +61 7 3346 3904 or email nina.mullins@uq.edu.au should you have any questions or concerns.

I very much look forward to catching up with you in person at next year's event.

Best wishes
