SJSU's 1857 Minutes of Giving campaign features over 100 projects, departments, and programs from across campus. This two-day event provides donors an opportunity to make a lasting impact on the future of our university.

Your donation plays a vital role in shaping the next generation of Spartans. It will directly benefit students, faculty, research initiatives, scholarships, and programs that enhance the academic experience for all who call SJSU home. Together, we can create opportunities that drive innovation, empower future leaders, and strengthen SJSU's vibrant and diverse community.

Mark your calendar for March 11-12, 2025, and prepare to be part of this extraordinary movement. Your involvement will help us create a future where every Spartan can dream, grow, and succeed.
