

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
CAPILANO UNIVERSITY

The CapU Alumni Association and Indigenous Student Services invites you to join our Truth & Reconciliation (T&R) Learning Circle beginning October 6, 2022.

About the T&R Learning Circle

The T&R Learning Circle is a book club designed to create an accessible space for CapU alumni and employees to increase their knowledge of issues related to Truth and Reconciliation. Discussions will be moderated by Crystal Henderson, community engagement facilitator from Indigenous Student Services, along with a Knowledge Keeper. Participants in the program will read chapters from an assigned book and meet weekly to discuss various themes and topics.

Wherever you are in your personal journey, come join us!

Details

Date: Every Thursday evening from October 6, 2022–November 17, 2022

Time: 8–9 p.m. PST

Location: Hybrid—virtual or in person at CapU Lonsdale

Our assigned book is Namwayut: We Are All One: A Pathway to Reconciliation by Chief Robert Joseph

RSVP

For further details and to register, please complete the online application.

Questions

Feel free to contact alumni@capilanou.ca

Capilano University Alumni Association
alumni@capilanou.ca

