Dear [REDACTED],

November 2, 2020

I am entering my final year of university this fall. The only reason I am able to write these words is because of donor support.

Growing up, there were five kids in my home, and my single mother could barely make ends meet. I always wanted to go to McGill, but my biggest fear was how I was going to pay for it. Even though I worked throughout the school year and full time in the summers, I simply could not earn enough to afford a McGill education.

But then I received a scholarship, and it changed my life! Thanks to this financial relief, I am pursuing the education of my dreams and am even able to volunteer and gain meaningful hands-on experience. As president of McGill Students for Parkinson's Awareness, I enjoy meeting Parkinson's patients, teaching them about their disorder and listening to their stories.

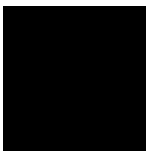

I recently learned that many more students than I realized depend on financial aid. My story is just one of thousands that show how the generosity of donors has an immense impact on students. Because of this help, I will be able to make a career helping others, and so many of my classmates will be able to pursue their own dreams. It's a chain reaction that starts with you.

Please make a gift through The McGill Fund today. Just as donor support changed my life, you can open doors for students who need a helping hand.

Thank you,

Julia Trolio
