

You + Waterloo

Black student community
at Waterloo 2026

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

Build community, find belonging

There's a vibrant community waiting to welcome, support, and grow with you at Waterloo. Whether you're looking to make new friends, celebrate culture, or simply find people who understand your experience, you'll find your place here.

“The Black community at Waterloo is way larger than many people think. It's easy to feel like you might not fit in at first, but there's something for everyone – and the people are great!”

Noddy (they/them), Honours Arts and Business, Liberal Studies major

Find your community

We have hundreds of clubs to help you find your people – including Black-led clubs where you can connect, get involved, and feel at home.

- › University of Waterloo Black Association for Student Expression (UW BASE)
- › Association of Caribbean Students
- › Racial Advocacy for Inclusion, Solidarity, and Equity (RAISE)
- › African Student Association
- › National Society of Black Engineers

Scholarships available

Waterloo offers over 30 scholarships ranging from $1,200 - $40,000 for incoming Black* students.

*For the purpose of these awards, Black may include African, Afro-Caribbean, Black Canadian, Afro-Latine, African American, Afro-Indigenous, or other African descent.

Supporting your success

Office of Equity, Diversity, Inclusion &
Anti-Racism (EDI-R)

EDI-R advances equity across campus through policies, practices, and programs.

Black Collective

This group of Black professors, staff, and students is committed to supporting the well-being and success of all Black students.

President's Anti-racism
Taskforce (PART)

PART works to amplify the voices of Black, First Nations, Inuit, Métis, and other Peoples of Colour and address racism.

Black Studies at Waterloo

Enhance your degree with courses in Black Studies – no matter your program.

Diploma in Black Studies

Gain an in-depth understanding of why Black Studies are needed and learn more about Black culture, life, literature, and society.

Diploma in Fundamentals of Anti-Racist Communication

Dig deep into how racism affects language, behaviour, institutions, conversations, and policies. Plus, learn how to combat racism and communicate with sensitivity in everyday life.

Scan to learn more

uwaterloo.ca/future/black-community

Get in touch

No matter your question – from programs to student life – we're here to support you.

international.recruitment@uwaterloo.ca

The pattern on this brochure is inspired by kente – a vibrant Ghanaian textile symbolizing history, identity, and status. Each colour holds meaning: yellow for royalty, black for spiritual strength, orange for physical strength, green for growth, and red for sacrifice. Worn during ceremonies, kente celebrates African heritage, unity, and artistry, and remains a symbol of pride across the African diaspora.

Waterloo is committed to acting on the climate emergency and is working toward carbon neutrality and zero waste in our own practices. The paper this publication is printed on contains post-consumer fibre and is Forest Stewardship Council® (FSC®) certified.

YOU+WATERLOO

Our greatest impact happens together

uwaterloo.ca/future