

Working with Volunteers

27 - 28 February 2020

Manchester, United Kingdom

This year we are intentionally international – harnessing the global power of our alumni volunteers to create worldwide impact for our institutions.

In the Working with Volunteers 2020 conference we are focusing on solutions to the unique challenges that come with managing alumni volunteers around the globe. We will show you a world of possibilities with innovative programming and best practices that will help your international programmes soar.

In these sessions we'll learn by doing and break down the barrier between the audience and speaker. We'll focus on the principles, backed up by case studies, while we extract practical advice and take-aways you can use back at base. We will equip you to inspire leadership at your institution to see the full potential of global alumni volunteers. Our dynamic programme will inspire you to return to your institution ready to launch or reinvigorate your volunteer initiatives.

Location: The Studio, 51 Lever St., Manchester M1 1FN

Programme: you can see the full programme here - <https://www.case.org/events/working-volunteers-2020>

Chairs:

Markus Karlsson-Jones, Global Volunteer and Networks Officer, University of Manchester
Peter Papagiannis, Alumni Volunteer Officer, The European Molecular Biology Laboratory (EMBL)

Audience: 40 professionals from European institutions. Suitable for professionals working in volunteering and supporter engagement programmes of all shapes and sizes and at all stages of development.
